ARTIST OPPORTUNITIES

- July 19, 10-4:00 SAL will participate in the Downtown Melbourne July Sidewalk Sale event So prepare your inventory and see Kathy if you want to help out or display your work.
- Patrons have recently been calling the Gallery, seeking larger coastal art pieces. Be sure to post your work at the SAL on-line web-gallery for greater exposure. (see JM)
- Events you may wish to create art pieces for: Friday, September 19, "Talk Like a Pirate" at Foo Bar; Saturday, September 27 - Melbourne Mainstreet PrideFest.

Art night at SAL is always enjoyable.

"Creativity is contagious, pass it on,"
-Albert Einstein

CUDOS

Artist Demos are free to SAL members and are scheduled on the 3rd Tuesday of each month.

The May 19 Artist Demo will feature water color techniques presented by Susan Carden-Flicker.

"You can't use up creativity. The more you use, the more you have."

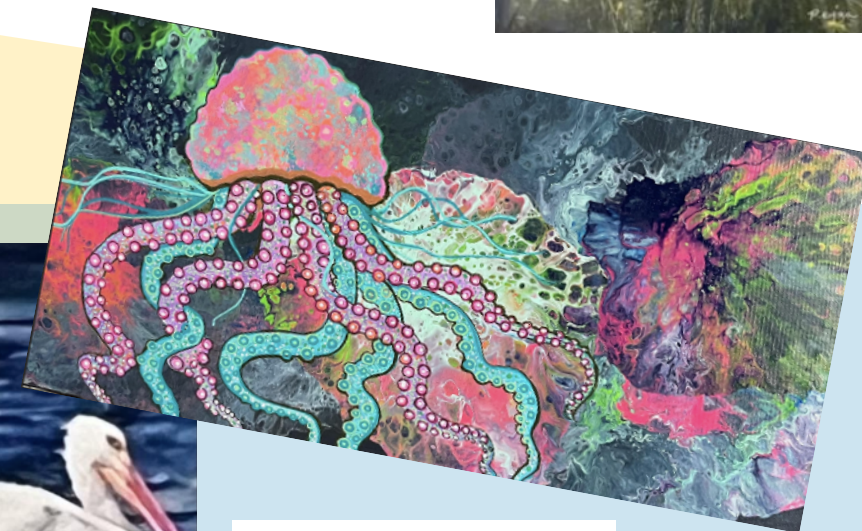

-Maya Angelou

SAL GALLERY EXHIBITS

Congratulations to Michele Pejza for winning People's Choice Award at the SAL "Color of the Year" exhibit with her pastel, "Timeless Sunset on Jekyll Island." (right).

The Design Your Own T-Shirt exhibit PCA was won by Kathy McElhinny, for her painting on left.

"The object isn't to make art, it's to be in that wonderful state which makes art inevitable." -Robert Henri

CONGRATULATIONS

- Congrats to Susan Carden-Flicker (see bottom photo) on exhibit at the Melbourne Art Festival April 26-27.
- Many thanks to Shanon Zeleniak, "Cookie the Clown", who performed at the Melbourne Art Festival on behalf of Strawbridge Art League.
- Shannon has generously performed her balloon artistry at other SAL events and brings much joy to our community.
- We appreciate Joan Crutcher, who was also working with the kiddos at the Melbourne Art Festival, leading spray bottle painting sessions at the "Kids World" area of the festival.
